achieve the abundance you deserve!

My name is Wendy Moore. I used to be a top IT Project Manager, managing $45 million budgets and teams of people. I was hugely successful and making a lot of money.

But then slowly, gradually, I realised it wasn't for me. I started to experience gut wrenching stress. It got to the point where I'd be getting up to work, and I'd be...

Throwing Up Every Single Morning!

I just couldn't do it anymore. I needed a lifestyle change. And that's where property investing entered the picture. I was already dabbling in property, and after a few hits and misses, I developed confidence, and acquired the necessary expertise and expanded my portfolio. Over the last 2 years, I have bought and sold 15 properties - combined value of over $2.5M.

I started www.affluencia.com to show women of ALL ages, of ALL races, of ALL backgrounds, just what is possible. And that it IS possible!

Affluencia is a breakthrough real estate coaching program designed for the unique needs of WOMEN. I pull together the smartest, savviest, sharpest and most dedicated REAL ESTATE INVESTORS in Australia.

But more than that...

I've travelled the road ... personally. I've made money from real estate. Lots of money. Once I learnt HOW to do it (and it became easy for me), a strange thing happened - I wanted to show other women how do it, too. Because it is easy once you learn the process.

Affluencia is about empowering women to understand the FULL ins and outs of real estate investment... how to take control of their wealth and their lives using what I believe to be the ULTIMATE wealth vehicle.

I've created Affluencia for one reason...
